

POLES OBTAIN CONCESSIONS FROM RUSSIA

Grants of Timber and Iron Lands Made Instead of Money.

UKRAINE IN THE PACT Secret Agreement Reported Between Three Countries Defining Award.

DEAL HELD UP TREATY

Warsaw Anxiously Awaits Attitude of Allies Regarding Seizure of Vilna.

By the Associated Press.
RIGA, Oct. 14.—The Bolsheviks and Poles are reported to have completed a secret agreement at Riga whereby Poland gets timber concessions in Russia and iron ore concessions in Ukraine in lieu of the gold settlements the Poles had asked for. It was the question of gold settlements which caused so much delay in the preliminary peace negotiations.

WARSAW, Oct. 13 (delayed).—The press of Poland in its comment upon the Vilna situation generally expresses approval of the action of Gen. Zeligowski in occupying the city. This is especially true of the Liberal organs.

The keenest interest is being displayed in the attitude of Paris and London toward the Vilna incident. That section of the press which is opposed to Gen. Zeligowski criticizes the Government for not issuing more promptly than it did a statement regarding the affair. The anti-Zeligowski newspapers also express the view that Gen. Zeligowski was wrong in defying the Allies.

The motives of Gen. Zeligowski in occupying Vilna are not clear, says the Gazette Warszawskie, and it asks why the Polish Chief Command did not decide the question.

Referring to the Vilna situation and the rumors that Minsk had been occupied by the anti-Bolshevik force of Gen. Bialakovich, the Republic says that certain of the Polish elements seem willing to risk Poland's foreign policy in such combinations, thereby endangering the issue of peace and its durability.

It is rumored that Gen. Bialakovich is attempting to establish a White Russian State with Minsk as its capital.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—A Kovno despatch announces that the Jewish National Council of Lithuania has appointed a special defense committee for the purpose of organizing all Jews in Lithuania to defend Lithuanian independence. The committee has issued an appeal to the entire Jewish population to join the army and contribute to the defense fund.

HELSINKI, Finland, Oct. 14.—The Russo-Finnish peace treaty was signed today at Dorpat, Estonia.

PARIS negotiations between Finland and Russia were entered into last spring on the initiative of the Moscow Government. The pourparlers, however, were subject to many interruptions.

LEAGUE THREATENS POLES OVER VILNA

Council's Head Warns Paderewski to Leave City.

PARIS, Oct. 14.—Leon Bourgeois, president of the Council of the League of Nations, received Ignace Jan Paderewski, the former Polish Premier, today and informed him that the occupation of Vilna by Polish troops was in violation of the undertakings entered upon by Poland to the league. He requested that the Polish Government take all necessary measures to put an end to the occupation.

Should Vilna not be evacuated speedily, M. Bourgeois informed M. Paderewski, the League of Nations would be obliged to consider the situation, which could only be regarded as very serious.

SOVIET FOE TO IGNORE PEACE WITH POLAND

Gen. Bialakovich to Continue War on Reds.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Gen. Bulak Bialakovich, leader of the Russian troops in Poland who have been fighting the Russian Soviet forces independently of the Poles, has invited all the anti-Bolshevik forces to leave Poland before the Polish-Soviet armistice becomes effective, October 19, in order that they may continue the war against the Reds, says a despatch to the London Times from Warsaw.

Gen. Bialakovich, who is of peasant origin, plans to lead his fighters across the demarcation line from a base in White Russia. It is hoped to declare the independence of this province with the capital at Minsk. Gen. Bialakovich will operate in the direction of Minsk-Vitebsk, where it is declared the countryside is aflame in revolution against the Soviet and only awaiting a competent leader. It is the intention later to subordinate these forces to the army of Gen. Wrangel, says the despatch.

U. S. NOT TO REGARD SOVIET TREATY FINAL

Would Leave Polish Boundary to Representative Regime.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—In line with its attitude regarding the proposed surrender by Russian Soviet authorities of Russian rights and concessions in China, the United States is not prepared to accept as final any delimitation of the Russian-Polish boundary made in a peace treaty between the Poles and Soviet forces that invaded the territory of the old Russian monarchy. This was learned today from an authoritative source, the statement being emphasized that the United States did not recognize the Soviet officials to speak for all of Russia.

It was indicated that the Washington Government would take the position that the Russian-Polish boundary could not be regarded as finally determined until a representative Russian Government had passed upon the question.

JUGO-SLAVS OCCUPY TOWNS IN CARINTHIA

Disregard Plebiscite Favoring Austrian Rule.

VIENNA, Oct. 14.—Two battalions of Jugo-Slavs have entered the southern Carinthia, which had been occupied by several towns. In reply to the allied commission's protest, the battalion commanders declared they did not recognize the plebiscite commission and announced they would take over the administration pending developments. It is rumored in Klagenfurt that other troops are on the way to the zone. The provisional authorities have ordered the population to remain quiet and await the action of the Allies.

Serious riots, the beating of Germans and the robbing of shops are reported at Maribor. An analysis of the victory for Austria in the plebiscite in the Klagenfurt zone shows that 11 out of the 12 communities went Austrian. The Vienna press warmly praises the impartiality of the allied commission in the plebiscite.

The south Austrian Jugo-Slav press contains accounts of alleged oppression and unfairness. Two Ljubljana papers demand that a Jugo-Slav army immediately occupy the plebiscite zone, without waiting for an official announcement of the result of the balloting.

CORK CITY HALL RAIDED, BUT ONE ARREST MADE

Soldiers Drive Up and Take Possession for an Hour.

CORK, Oct. 14.—The first raid on the Cork City Hall since Terence MacSwiney, the Lord Mayor, was arrested last August, took place shortly before noon today when four lorries filled with soldiers, a smaller lorry mounting a Lewis gun and an armored car drove up and took possession of the building. The raiders remained for more than an hour. They made one arrest, John Baker, a clerk in the Highway Department, from whom they found a ticket for a raffle of a revolver.

Every person in the building was rounded up, and with hands in the air was sent to the corridor on the second floor, where a personal search was made. In the meantime there was a systematic search of the various department offices. Officials of the Treasury Department assert that £32, which were private funds, are missing from the safe.

NEWSPAPER MEN WIN STRIKE

BERLIN, Oct. 14.—The striking newspaper employees and the owners today arrived at a settlement of the strike. The men will receive an increase of salary and payment of 75 per cent. of their salaries for the days during which the strike was in effect.

IRISH LABOR TO MEET WITH BRITISH

Trades Union Congress of Ireland to Consult With Council of Action.

BRITISH LEADERS AT ODDS Asquith Attacks Lloyd George and Carson Calls Asquith Traitor.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 14.—The executive committee of the Irish Trade Union Congress and Labor Party has accepted an invitation from the "Council of Action" of the British Labor Party (which believes in using the strike to gain political ends) to a joint consultation on the Irish situation. The conference will be held in London Monday.

This is regarded as an important development in the relations of Irish and British labor on the eve of the opening of Parliament.

The political tempest which has been aroused by the recent pronouncements of prominent men on the Irish problem, notably by Premier Lloyd George, Viscount Grey and former Premier Asquith, received further impetus today when Mr. Asquith bitterly attacked Mr. Lloyd George, while at the same time Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, made an equally acrimonious assault on Mr. Asquith.

Speaking at Lymington with reference to Premier Lloyd George's Welsh address, Mr. Asquith declared that "all the Premier's flippancies and all his vulgarities have not diverted and cannot divert attention from the outstanding fact of his confession of political bankruptcy." He said that the Premier's speech would be interpreted as at least condoning the reprisals in Ireland.

Sir Edward Carson in a speech in London asserted that Mr. Asquith at the most critical moment in the Irish question was attempting to minimize the efforts toward a solution. A man who would do that for the purpose of gaining support for his party issues, he declared, was a traitor to his country.

Regarding the reprisals Mr. Asquith said he was confident that when Parliament reassembled it would insist upon an independent and impartial inquiry into the reprisals cases, which "were not acts of self defence, but blind vengeance."

Referring to the burning of creameries, he declared that no parallel to these reprisals could be found except in the actions of the Germans. So far as he knew no one concerned in the outrages of the past four months had been punished. He concluded with a condemnation of what he called the makeshift home rule bill now before Parliament.

Sir Edward, discussing the measure put forward by the Government for home rule for the north and west counties and another for Ulster, said that a majority for this was secured, but he personally thought it was cruel to the people of Ireland at present to try to lead Ireland into a political war for independence. If once that war broke out it could not be ended during the present generation.

TWO KILLED IN RAID ON SINN FEINERS' STORES

4 Wounded When Soldiers Attack in Armored Car.

DUBLIN, Oct. 14.—Two persons, a boy of 15 years and another civilian, were killed and four others wounded, including a policeman on duty, when soldiers with two lorries and an armored car attempted to raid a building containing a tailoring store on Talbot street this afternoon. Other deaths are expected. A crowd collected when the raiding party appeared and the military, fearing an attack, fired volleys.

The tailoring store is owned by two leading Sinn Feiners. One of them, Thomas Hunter, is a member of the British House of Commons. Civilians attacked an armored car at Rathbarrow road, Dublin, this afternoon. During the fighting a soldier was wounded and a civilian is reported to have been killed.

SAY MACSWINEY LIVES BY MIRACLE

fast records, it was asserted that all twelve of the hunger strikers are subject to the same unprecedented care. All of them were "hard" and in good health when they began their hunger strike. None of them were "fat" men, and none of them were subject to any special complication.

Arouses New Speculations.

Hence, if the facts are bona fide the problem resolves itself into how long their blood streams will be relieved of every task, as well as from every nourishment which would sustain the spark of life. It is like speculating on how long a wheel with perfect bearings and perfectly lubricated would revolve when every resistance and every adverse impulse were eliminated. Also it raises interesting speculations regarding what material energy is contained in the course of the non-material processes of intellect and will. It gets into the nebulous border, where ideas originate and where the metaphysical and the physical meet, the region Edison hopes to sound with a machine to tap spirit messages.

Supernatural intervention in the MacSwiney case is not excludable. He is a devout Catholic and receives the sacrament daily. Here, however, it must be said that the waver of the communion is entirely too small to constitute any considerable element of nutrition. Those devout Irish who believe that MacSwiney's cause is as sacred as he himself believes it to be do not hesitate to assert that God is specially sustaining him.

Even the most fervid of his friends among the London priests, however, express this more as a devout hope than as a belief. They admit there is no sufficient evidence to warrant the theological certitude such as is necessary to console persons who are in a position to believe with MacSwiney that undoubtedly God is rewarding his noble fortitude, while persons politically opposed to him say it may be either psychology or diabolism that he is receiving. Opinion cleaves the same lines over whether he is committing suicide.

Doubt Rests on Suspicion.

In the face of all these circumstances it must be said that the belief that he is being fed rests only on general suspicion and untraceable report, while reports that his fast is bona fide rest on statements by persons who are in a position to know, but who are interested in the effect their statements have upon the cause for which they are ready to make any sacrifice.

MacSwiney's actual condition was described to THE NEW YORK HERALD correspondent today by Art O'Brien, Sinn Fein representative in London and MacSwiney's personal representative, who last saw the Lord Mayor of Cork on Saturday.

"MacSwiney's mind is active and clear, but his body is practically dead," he said. "There is no movement of his hands and only the slightest movement of his head. It is necessary for one to place his ear directly over MacSwiney's mouth to hear what he says. His speech is infinitely slow and labored, but perfectly intelligent and clear. The light in his eyes is ghostly. His voice is his only sign of life. He always has a thin face, and I can't say he looked extremely drawn and thin, although his weight has gone off 50 per cent. He is disturbed as little as possible and he is getting perfect care."

"I can definitely assure you he is not getting the slightest nourishment," MacSwiney says he suffers little pain now. He passes long intervals without sleep, which is very wearing on him. However, even this fatigue is softened by gently reading amusing and not taxing books to him.

KING, ILL, DISTURBS POLITICS OF GREECE

With Elections on November 7, Monkey Bites May Have Tragic Effect.

INTRIGUES FOR A THRONE Constantine Seeking Restoration and Premier Afraid Republic Is Too Early.

Special Cable Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
Copyright, 1920, by THE NEW YORK HERALD.
New York Herald Bureau, Paris, Oct. 14.

Because of the importance Greece has assumed as a nation since the Turkish treaty, the course of the illness of King Alexander is being followed with intense interest here. With the Greek elections occurring on November 7 the monkey bites which the King received might easily have tragic developments politically in view of the internal conflict going on in Greece between the partisans of King Constantine, who was expelled on June 12, 1917, and the enemies of the dynasty, the new Constitution stipulating that the dynasty ends with the present King, deposing thereby his brother Paul, the third child of King Constantine and Queen Sophie.

Latest despatches received here from Athens say that King Alexander is suffering from a serious malady, but Pasteur doctors interviewed here assert there is nothing peculiar about a monkey bite, recalling that Mme. Polnareff once was bitten by a monkey and recovered from the illness in which there were just such symptoms as are present in the case of King Alexander.

The mystery surrounding the incident in connection with the monkey bites received by King Alexander was somewhat lifted by the Athen correspondent of the Gazette today, when he says that the Greek King was walking in the royal park with his dog when the latter was attacked by a monkey belonging to the director of the royal farm. The King tried to separate the animals, whereupon the monkey turned on him, biting him on the foot and hand. The King has his hand cauterized, but paid no attention to the wound on his foot, which, forty-eight hours later, became infected. He was seized with vomiting and his condition steadily became worse.

The political party of Premier Eleutherios Venizelos of Greece does not favor a republic, and must if King Alexander dies find an outsider for the Greek throne. They are reported to have sounded London regarding Prince Arthur of Connaught and also to be considering Prince Sixtus of Bourbon, the one time medium for the Austrian peace offers.

ATHENS, Oct. 14.—The condition of King Alexander today is still critical. Last night Dr. Vidal, the noted French physician, examined the King and afterward expressed the opinion that his case was of the most critical sort, but that it was not hopeless.

PROF. HIRSCHFELD NOT DEAD. Noted Physiologist Recovering From Anti-Semites' Attack.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—A Munich despatch today contradicts the recent report from Berlin of the death of Prof. Magnus Hirschfeld, the noted German physiologist, who was said to have died in a Munich hospital as the result of a beating given him by some anti-Semites because he was a Jew.

The Munich message declares Prof. Hirschfeld had sufficiently recovered to have left the hospital.

LEAGUE AGAIN DENIES MACSWINEY IS FED

Silent on Contrary Views of New York Physicians.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The officials of the Irish Self-Determination League, which sends out reports regarding the condition of Lord Mayor MacSwiney in Brixton prison, have made no comment on American press reports that some of the New York physicians regard a sixty-day fast as humanly impossible. They reiterate their denial, however, that he is receiving nourishment of any kind.

The league officials declined today to speculate on the time the Mayor may yet be able to hold out, merely saying: "He might die any minute, or, on the other hand, he might survive several days."

Mrs. MacSwiney continues to make her customary three hour visit each evening to her husband's bedside.

Today's bulletin said: "MacSwiney passed a fairly good night, but was extremely weak, on this the sixty-third day of his hunger strike."
